Malik Shehryar Hasan

Box 5058, 69 Brown Street Providence RI 02912
malik_shehryar_hasan@brown.edu • +1-401-225-7856

EDUCATION

Brown University, B.Sc. Computer Science-Economics, GPA: 3.9   May 2019 (Expected)
SAT: 2230, Math 2: 780, 4 A*s (A-Levels)
- Relevant Courses: Investments, Behavioral Economics, Methods of Applied Mathematics, Statistics, Politics and Public Policy of Economic Development (graduate level), Software Engineering

RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

Ernst and Young LLP, Advisory Summer Analyst   Karachi, Pakistan | May 2017 – August 2017
- Conducted cost-benefit analysis of 5 existing public-private partnerships as part of the Technical Assistance team for a €77.5 million European Union financed & managed project in Pakistan
- Interviewed 18 government officials to diagnose problems in existing local development strategies
- Provided recommendations aimed at a 30% sustainable income increase for 770,000 poor households
- Travelled with team-members to 3 identified project target areas to evaluate feasibility of proposals
- Co-authored a Communications and Visibility Plan approved by EU diplomats for use with project

Ernst and Young LLP, Audit Intern   Karachi, Pakistan | June 2016 – July 2016
- Conducted net asset value, income and expenditure verification as part of a 5-member team performing the external audit of the First Habib Mutual Fund, valued at PKR1.6 billion (US$16 million)
- Reviewed financial records for over 50 trades from market databases to verify net asset value reports
- Analyzed 25+ client data sources to evaluate and authenticate reported income and expenditure levels
- Ensured client's compliance with Securities and Exchange Commission standards for fiscal disclosure

Brown Journal of World Affairs, Business Manager   Providence, RI | September 2015 – Present
- Manage a $10,000 budget and lead a team of 8 associates to handle financing for all operations
- Commissioned paywall for 30 issues on our website to cut mailing costs, furthered integration with web archive JStor, and increased journal circulation to key clients like the United Nations and NATO
- Increased on-campus brand awareness and interaction by 36% by establishing core KPIs for marketing
- Reduced yearly costs by $1500+ by addressing printing issues; secured $3000 of additional funding

LEADERSHIP AND TEAMWORK EXPERIENCE

Brown University Department of Economics, Teaching Assistant   September 2017 – Present
- Teaching Assistant for Principles of Economics - Brown's highest enrolled undergraduate course
- Lead two sections of 30 students each, grade 60 weekly homeworks and assist with exam preparation

Brown Trading Group, Market Research Committee   September 2016 – Present
- Produce weekly in-depth summaries of pivotal events affecting major world financial markets
- Present a suitable investment strategy for the current economic and political climate every semester

Brown University Writing Fellows Programme, Writing Fellow   September 2016 – Present
- Review and provide 2 sessions of feedback for 30 undergraduate course-specific essays every semester
- Design and conduct 1-hour intensive training sessions to aid students in composition techniques

SKILLS AND INTERESTS

Technical: Java, Python, JavaScript, HTML/CSS, SQL, MATLAB and Microsoft Office
Interests: Amateur Boxing, Urban Exploration, Islamic Art and Architecture, Global Development